

2010 Princeton Student Film & Video Festival

CALL FOR ENTRIES

The Princeton Student Film & Video Festival is seeking films for its 7th annual festival. It is open to high school and college students (or home-schooled, unschooled or not in school) between the ages of 14-24 from Princeton as well as anywhere near and far. No cost to enter. All entries must be submitted on DVD and accompanied by a completed entry form. The films selected will be screened over 2 nights on Wednesday July 21 and Thursday July 22, 2010 at the Princeton Public Library, 65 Witherspoon Street, Princeton, New Jersey. The filmmakers with selected films will be invited to introduce their films and provide a Q&A after the screening. All filmmakers, whether they have films selected or not, and family, friends and anyone interested in film and filmmaking are invited to attend. Admission is free. The screenings are intended for a teen and adult audience.

The Princeton Student Film & Video Festival is sponsored by the Princeton Public Library.

Deadline for submissions: June 21, 2010

Entry form, guidelines and more info:

www.princetonlibrary.org/teens/media